Total Expense Ratio ("TER")

Please note: A higher TER ratio does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TER's. Transaction costs are a necessary cost in administering the Fund and impacts Fund returns. It should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time, including market returns, the type of Fund, the investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER. The prior year ("PY") TER and transaction cost calculations are based upon the portfolio's direct costs for the financial year ended 31 December 2023, whilst the underlying portfolios' ratio and cost calculations are based upon their most recent published figures, being 30 September 2024.

Effective Annual Cost ("EAC")

Boutique Collective Investments (BCI) adopted the ASISA Standard on Effective Annual Cost ("EAC"). The EAC measure allows you to compare charges on your investments as well as their impact on your investment returns prior to investing. BCI calculates the EAC as per the ASISA standard for a period of 3 years up till the most recent TER reporting period. For further information regarding the ASISA Standard on Effective Annual Cost and access to the EAC calculator please visit our website at www.bcis.co.za.

#Monthly Fixed Administration Fee: R15 excluding VAT which will apply to all direct investor accounts with balances of less than R100 000 at month end, unless an investor transacts online, in which case no such fee will be levied.

FAIS Conflict of Interest Disclosure

Please note that your financial advisor may be a related party to the co-naming partner and/or BCI. It is your financial advisor's responsibility to disclose all fees he/she receives from any related party. The portfolio's TER includes all fees paid by portfolio to BCI, the trustees, the auditors, banks, the co-naming partner, underlying portfolios, and any other investment consultants/managers as well as distribution fees and LISP rebates, if applicable. The portfolio's performance numbers are calculated net of the TER expenses. The investment manager earns a portion of the service charge and performance fees where applicable. In some instances portfolios invest in other portfolios which forms part of the BCI Schemes. These investments will be detailed in this document, as applicable.

Quarterly Commentary for the period ending September 2024

Inflation data in the US subsided and unemployment data also came in positively, prompting the US Federal Reserve (Fed) to cut interest rates by an unexpected interest rate cut. China's central bank unveiled measures to improve the country's economy through lowering borrowing costs and allow banks to increase their lending. Additionally, China is set to increase its retirement age from 1 January 2025. South Africa's inflation rate dropped to below the midpoint target in August, encouraging the South African Reserve Bank (SARB) to cut rates since pre-Covid.

Developed market (DM) equities continued their strong run with the MSCI World Index ending positively at 1.83% month-on-month (m/m), leaving the global equity benchmark up, with only two negative months in the past year. The US Fed was a key catalyst driving investor optimism in September. The Fed cited some early signs of weakness in the US labour market as the motivation for easing monetary conditions. Emerging markets benefited from an improved investor sentiment and the MSCI Emerging Markets (EM) Index was the best performer ending positively at 6.72% m/m. Global bonds and global property ended positively 1.70% m/m and 3.15% m/m respectively (in dollars). The FTSE Index was negative at -1.29% m/m in pounds, while the S&P 500 was in positive territory at 2.14% m/m in dollars. The Dow Jones ended the month positively at 1.96% m/m in dollars, the Euro Stoxx 50 was positive at 0.93% m/m, and the Nikkei was negative for the month at -1.30%, due to concerns over economic growth in Japan.

South African equities continued with their post-election rally into September with the FTSE/JSE All Share Index posting positive gains of 4.04% m/m in rand terms. Resources were positive for the month at 3.89% m/m, however, Industrials ended negatively at -0.04% m/m. Property was the best performer in the local market at 5.04% m/m and Financials was also positive at 2.46% m/m. Cash was also in positive territory for the month at 0.67%. The bond market was positive, as the FTSE/JSE All Bond Index gained 3.86% m/m in rands. Bonds of 1-3 years gained 1.11% m/m, bonds of 3-7 years gained 2.45% m/m, bonds of 7-12 years gained 4.09% m/m, and bonds of 12 years and above gained 5.37% m/m. The rand strengthened against the US dollar by 3.03% m/m, against the euro by 2.19% m/m, and against the pound by 0.95% m/m.
